IN MEMORY OF

CHARLOTTE DESIREE KOCH
Daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Harry H. Koch

Born: May 3, 1948

Died September 15, 1960

He gazed at the flowers with tearful eyes,
He kissed their drooping leaves;
It was for the Lord of Paradise
He bound them in his sheaves.

Oh, not in cruelty, not in wrath,
The Reaper came that day;
'T was an angel visited the green earth,
And took the flowers away."

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

PROPHECY

The day is May 26, 1971; the city Green Valley, Illinois, with a population of 35,000. Here we are walking down Main Street when all of a sudden a sports car comes sailing up to the curb. The driver is none other than the world famous hot rod expert, Kenny Hilst. It seems that he has spotted some bums walking down the sidewalk. Why yes, of course it's Retha Jones and Jeanne Timke looking for the way to the nearest railroad yards. On down the street is Sharon _____ with her seven small children entering the Baby Boudoir. Accompanying her is another old classmate, Vivian _____ with her five kids. They are discussing how fast the children have been growing. On the next block are the town's largest businesses, one of which is Perfetti's Supermarket, the largest in the United States owned and managed by our own James Lee Perfetti. Wait! Look up there, isn't that Perfetti's Speedy Delivery Service Jet.

Down at the gymnasium we find the famous international basketball star Doug Correll signing autographs and his manager Fred Timke is trying to hurry him off on another visit.

As Ken, Retha, and Jeanne are walking down the street they run into the "Urish, Leeds, and Goeken Corporation." They are three successful petunia growers. From around the corner we hear the way out music of the swinging gangs hang-out. As we come closer we recognize some more of our old classmates. There is Bill Coleman at the Microphone singing his famous song "Bar Room Bop." At the piano we found Phyllis Ratch. Henry Young is tooting away on his trombone and Barbara Stadsholt on her clarinet. Jon Weyhrich is trying to get one of his valves on his coronet unstuck. We see Faye Ranyon and Marlene Ruth sitting in the crowd looking as if they are on cloud nine.

As we were standing there listening to the music a newsboy walked by yelling "Extra, extra, read all about it." Eldon Rademaker and Roger Hamann have just discovered the Fountain of Youth.

for your hands...

It's a big, wide, wonderful world and we give it to you with our blessings. Our fathers gave it to us a generation ago. They told us it would be what we chose to make of it.

They made it very plain that an education didn't entitle us to any more of this world than anyone else, merely that with an education we'd be better equipped to face it, meet its challenges.

Our fathers told us we'd stand a better chance with an education, and that we'd get more out of life. It was true then, and it's still true now. And then, as though sensing an unspoken thought, our fathers added another word of caution.

"Nor is an education a substitute for hard work," they smiled. "It's just a great help in that work."

We offer you the same words as those we received. We offer you the same world, slightly changed, but essentially intact. It's for your hands to improve.
